ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The Court recommends that the defendant be supervised by the district of his residence. The following special conditions of supervised release apply:

The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex offender treatment/ and or mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to polygraph testing. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the probation officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount approved by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment.

The defendant is not to use a computer, Internet-cable device, or similar electronic device to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children.

The defendant shall consent to the use and or installation of a computer program which shall monitor suspect computer use on any computer owned or controlled by the defendant. The programs used will be designed to identify, for probation office, only the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or otherwise using any images or content of a sexual nature, defined as Suspect Computer Use. Suspect Computer Use shall be identified by the installed programs and/or the probation officer through the screening of the defendant's computer usage for certain key words, phrases, and images.

Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. If applicable, the defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state in which the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall adhere to the registration and notification procedures of the state in which the defendant resides.

Payment of the $1,000 fine and the $200 special assessment is a condition of defendant's supervised release.
